March 31, 2004

Dear Friends,

A celebration of youth worldwide, the 2004 Athens Olympics are approaching fast. Alongside the sports a cultural Olympiad is going on.

ALEA III, the new music ensemble at Boston University, Theodore Antoniou music director, in collaboration with the internationally acclaimed pianist Konstantinos Papadakis and his young students, will participate in the worldwide event by a concert where young pianists (7-15 years of age) will perform piano concertos accompanied by an orchestra made up of young musicians.

Celebrating Musical Youth

The concert will take place at Tsai Performance Center, 685 Commonwealth Avenue, on Sunday, April 25, 2004 starting at 7:00 pm. We will have the chance to hear the young musicians performing piano concertos by Haydn, Mozart, Saint Saens (Carnival of the Animals), Ravel (Piano Concerto for the Left Hand), as well as world premieres by Antoniou and Darlas.

The orchestra and the young soloists will be lead by three internationally known conductors: Gunther Schuller, James Yannatos and Theodore Antoniou. Mr. Papadakis himself will perform the Ravel Piano Concerto for the Left Hand.

This will be a wonderful event celebrating talent, youth, music and culture. I hope ALEA III can count on your support and I look forward to seeing you at the concert on Sunday, April 25.

Sincerely,

Catherine Economou-Demeter
Vice Consul of Greece
